

A. C. FACULTY HOLDS MEETING

Instructors Hear President's Report and Prepare for School Opening

(Special Dispatch.)

OGDEN, Sept. 7.—The first meeting of the Utah Agricultural college faculty for the 1920-21 school year was held this morning. Complete arrangements were made for the opening of the institution on Monday, September 13, and all routine matters were carefully considered in order that students entering on that date may find the machinery of registration and instruction in perfect working condition.

REPORT TO FACULTY

In a comprehensive report to the faculty, President E. G. Peterson stated that the policy for the coming year would be similar to the one of the year just passed—a policy of economy.

"We are fortunately not forced to curtail our work in any way that will be detrimental to the students of the institution or to the state," said President Peterson. "It is our duty, however, to expend the funds at our disposal in a very careful and conscientious manner. We must return to the taxpayers of Utah full value for every cent put into the institution. Our special committee on economy and efficiency will aid departments in making exchanges of equipment and materials, where possible, in order that no unnecessary supplies be purchased. We can do this without restricting in any way the opportunity for students to secure the work they want or impairing in any way the efficiency of instruction."

President Peterson declared that the needs of the college for the future were very conservative due, in large measure, to the fact that the school had received three large brick buildings largely from federal funds as a result of its war work.

ROOMS FOR STUDENTS

According to President Peterson, the registration for the coming year will show a decided increase over any previous enrollment. "The institution will be taxed to its capacity to care for this large enrollment," said President Peterson. "Everything is being put in readiness to care for the students in an adequate manner. A special joint committee of the college, the Chamber of Commerce and the Logan Rotary club has made a thorough survey of the board and room situation. The report of this committee is very encouraging and indicates that many more students can be cared for in Logan this year than last. The business men of Logan have shown their customary loyalty to the school by offering the use of many automobiles as may be needed during the first two weeks of school to be used in taking students to their boarding places. Bureaus of information will be maintained for incoming students both at the Chamber of Commerce and at the college. The college cafeteria will prepare three meals a day at cost, thus reducing materially the expense of the students."

IN GOOD CONDITION.
The president stated that the institution was in good physical condition. It has had a thorough cleaning, oiling and painting, new lawns have been sown, the quadrangle has been put in shape and the general appearance of the campus is excellent. The president announced that the women's rest room had been moved to more commodious quarters in the south wing of the main building and that a common room for the men had been established in the north wing of the same building.

The faculty accepted a series of regulations intended to guide the conduct of students in fraternity, sorority and boarding houses.

Fifty-one faculty members were in attendance.

Until Congress enacts new laws, the old Danish laws will remain in effect in the Virgin Islands.

CONNIE TALMADGE CAPTIVATES BIG HOUSE AT UTAH THEATRE

Public Demands Humorous
Themes; Couple Satisfying
Clamor for Humor

Just to prove that there is more humor in a real story than in a humorous one, rather than in a hysterical pandemonium of flippers chasing each other over slippery scenery, with policemen falling from the Henry's at each turn in the road, John Emerson and Anita Loos have written "The Perfect Woman." Constance Talmadge's latest starring vehicle. This policy of real human interest stories interspersed with suspense and laughter is the type of story in which Miss Talmadge appears to such splendid advantage. "In Search of a Sinner," and "The Love Expert" prove that Miss Talmadge is using her superb talents in the most pleasing kind of screen stories.

Suit Over Sale of Sugar Stock Opens

Suit to recover $1,500 on a check was begun this morning in the district court by J. A. Hogie against Hyrum Hokanson. The case is being tried before Judge A. E. Pratt's division of the court.

In the complaint Hogie alleges that on January 23, 1920, the defendant delivered a check to the company for $1,500, signed by Mr. Hokanson. On January 26, it is alleged that the check was presented to the Pingree National bank, but payment had been stopped.

In answer to the complaint Mr. Hokanson admits making the check, but sets forth that he ordered Hogie to buy him twenty shares of stock in the Hooper Sugar company and complainant that stock in the Pingree Sugar company was given him instead. As soon as he noticed that the stock was not that which he ordered, he returned the certificates to Hogie, but was refused return of his check, he alleges.

Hogie asks judgment for $1,500 with interest and court costs. Hokanson asks that the case be dismissed.

SANTEL STOPS OFF EN ROUTE

Wrestler Plans Invasion of Orient Starting in November

Ad Santel, world's light heavyweight wrestling champion, well known to Ogden sport fans, was an Ogden visitor today en route to San Francisco from Greeley, Colo., where he met and defeated Toots Mondt in straight falls Labor day.

The champion recently met Jim Londos at San Francisco in a finish match, winning two straight falls after more than three hours of mat work with the Greek champion.

Londos and Santel have been matched for a second bout to be held at the Dreamland arena in San Francisco, September 13, the match to be at catch weights and to a finish.

After the Londos match Santel will depart for the Orient where he will meet all comers. He will be on tour in China and Japan for more than six months, during which time he will defend his title. With reference to the trip to the Orient Santel today said: "I will leave San Francisco November 19 for the Orient where I will meet all comers at catch weights. The trip will consume about six months and should be a wonderful experience for me. K. O. Romanoff, who recently wrestled Jack Harbertson at Lagoon, will accompany me on the trip. Romanoff will be my training partner."

"Wrestling in the Orient is one of the major sports and on my tour I should be able to return home with a small fortune."

Tex Rickard, New York promoter, has offered Santel a flat offer of $25,000 to meet Joe Stecher at Madison square garden, New York Christmas day, the champion being unable to meet the heavyweight title holder due to the fact that he has already signed to invade the Orient. While in Ogden he talked with scores of sport fans. He departed on westbound train No. 19 for the coast where he will complete training for the Londos match.

OLD PAL PETE:

Just skimmed another swell Camel fact! Stop this: Guess I've smoked a million Camels! Pete, they never tired my taste yet!!!! And, old socks, put Camels to the test! Then you'll wise up that Camels leave no unpleasant cigarette after-taste nor unpleasant cigarette odor!

That's some smoke news, I'll say, when you been trying to fuss the "straight" brands! And, old shoe, you ought to know, they gave you a lacing!

What makes a dent on my disposition is that while Camels are the mildest cigarette and the mellowest cigarette any man can buy they've got all the "body" you ever heard tell of!

Why Pete, I got as many new selling ideas about Camels as there are hairs on a purr-kitty's tail!

Drop your old lamps down here,—how's that for blazing the joy Camels pass out!
